News, Resources & Opportunities to Energize & Equip
Church Leaders of the Central Texas Conference

March 30, 2011

Welcome! This is the conference's weekly update to church leaders — lay and clergy. Articles and requests should be submitted to Carolyn@ctcumc.org by 12 noon Tuesday in order to be e-mailed on Wednesday. Articles should be brief and include active links to websites or contact persons for details. To add a colleague or church member to E-Link's weekly distribution, send their addresses to susan@ctcumc.org. Editor: Carolyn Stephens Carolyn@ctcumc.org

Merit/Brown Scholarships — May 1 Application Deadline

The CTC Higher Education Task Force serves as administrator for two significant scholarships with the deadline of May 1 for applications. More details and application forms are available at www.ctcumc.org. Click on "Ministries" in the menu bar and select "Higher Education." The recipients will be announced at Annual Conference June 5-8 in Waco.

Conference Merit Award. The Merit Award will be made to a newly admitted student in a UM-related school. The amount is determined by the previous year conference-wide contributions to the UM Student Day offering (generally around $1,000). Please note that only students from congregations that participated in the previous year's Student Day offering are eligible. Also, each local church is invited to nominate no more than one student annually for the Merit Award. The Merit Award recipient will be announced at Annual Conference.

Dr. G. Alfred & Opal Brown Scholarship. This $5,000 scholarship is awarded to a ministerial student preparing for ministry as an elder in the CTC at a seminary approved by the University Senate of the UMC. Check the criteria and use the application forms on the conference website. Each local church is invited to nominate no more than one student annually.

This Pastor Walks by Faith

Check the conference website (www.ctcumc.org) for a story about one of our own. Kevin Diggs, pastor at Watts Chapel UMC, is one of those examples of witnessing a real life sermon rather than just hearing one. For his uplifting "sermon," check out his personal faith/life journey in the Cleburne Times-Review.

Relief Kit Delivery to Sager Brown

FUMC Mansfield will be delivering Relief Kits and other supplies to UMCOR Sager Brown (Baldwin, La.) in late May. There will be plenty of room on the truck and the church would love to include any kits that conference churches are assembling. If your church is planning to make relief kits for the Change the World weekend, this would be a great way to get them delivered at no additional cost! Supplies will be collected at FUMC Mansfield (777 N. Walnut Creek Drive, Mansfield 76063) during the week of May 16–20. Please contact Teresa Sherwood if you would like to transport your supplies to Sager Brown with the FUMC Mansfield truck.

UMCOR Responding to Needs in Japan

Continue to check the conference website (www.ctcumc.org) for the latest stories being posted about the UMC and UMCOR's assistance and relief efforts for the people of Japan. The photo may not change, but stories are unfolding almost daily. Many of the photos used by UMNS have been purchased or used by permission from the U.S. military and news wires services. They are not available to our conference, but the articles area.

You can help. Donations can be made to Pacific Emergency, UMCOR Advance #3021317 (<http://secure.gbgm-umc.org/donations/umcor/donate.cfm?code=3021317>). Other specific ways to help will be reported as they are determined by those onsite in Japan. For related stories and resources for local churches, please check the links on the conference website at www.ctcumc.org and Bishop Lowry's blog (The Focused Center banner).

One Great Hour of Sharing — This Weekend!

In light of all the emergencies occurring around the world, we are reminded that our participation in the One Great Hour of Sharing offering on April 3. UMCOR is able to give 100% of donations to disasters like Japan and Haiti because of the giving to One Great Hour of Sharing, which covers the "costs of doing business." Join United Methodists everywhere by participating in the special offering that supports UMCOR's vital work. Your gifts to One Great Hour of Sharing lay the foundation for UMCOR to bring restoration, healing and hope for tomorrow. Please give generously. Donate to OGHS - <http://bit.ly/f197b6>. Order your free One Great Hour of Sharing envelopes, posters, and other worship materials by calling 888-346-3862 or get them online here. Gifts to this fund can be made all year long. Sing a Rainbow Rescheduled — April 2

UMW President Cynthia Rives reports that the Charter for Racial Justice Event "Sing a Rainbow" was rescheduled because of the ice/snow storm. It will be held Saturday, April 2, at Bursleson First UMC with registration beginning at 9 a.m., gathering at 9:45 a.m. and concluding by 3 p.m. The theme of the day is "A Faith Conversation on Immigration." A flyer and registration form are attached and posted on the conference website (www.ctcumc.org).

Waco District UMW Spiritual Growth Retreat — April 2

First UMC, Crawford (corner of Ave. D & 6th St.) will host the Waco District United Methodist Women's Spiritual Growth Retreat this Saturday, April 2. Gathering time is 8:30 a.m. with the program from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. with lunch immediately after. The district officers will provide breakfast. No cost, but bring your favorite potluck lunch food. The spiritual leaders are Denise Blakely, pastor at Mt. Zion/Perry Chapel UMCs, and Joyce Hall, lay speaker/lay leader at Perry Chapel UMC. No reservations required, but email Edie Snider (snider1248@gmail.com) with the number attending from your church group.

Haiti Earthquake Relief Mission

On Jan. 12, 2010, the nation of Haiti experienced a massive earthquake that eventually claimed over 250,000 lives. The UMC has been working with the Methodist Church of Haiti to rebuild lives and property. By OAS estimates, Haiti is the poorest country in the Western Hemisphere. The nation has had poor and corrupt leadership. Illiteracy is rampant throughout the country. The earthquake only added to the problems of the Haitian people. People of the CTC have 2 opportunities for hands-on participation:

Laraine Waughtal (pastor at Morgan Mill/Bluff Dale) will lead a 10-person UMVIM earthquake relief mission team Oct. 5-13. She is signing volunteers for the team and a waiting list in case there are cancellations. If you are interested, contact Waughtal at 254-595-1503 or revlaraine@yahoo.com.

George Murphy (member at Salado UMC) will lead a UMVIM earthquake relief mission Oct. 20-28 and has four remaining slots for the 10-member team to serve for one week in Haiti. If interested, contact Murphy at 254-947-0601 or temeg@embarqmail.com.

Baylor School of Social Work Offers Benefits Application Training — April 5

Training on benefits applications (CHIP, SNAP, TANF and Medicaid) and on agency referrals will be offered from 6 to 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, April 5, at the Baylor School of Social Work (811 Washington between 8th and 9th streets/not on the Baylor campus). Plan to parallel park on Washington, use the parking lot across the street on Washington or the two parking lots behind the Baylor School of Social Work directly off Columbus. Enter through the double glass doors that face Washington, go up the escalators to classroom 211 for Benefits Training or 212 for Agency Referral Training. Contact Jodi Terwilliger-Stacey (L.I.F.T. coordinator) at jstacey2@hotmail.com with the number from your church who wish to do the training and which course.

UMC Leadership Summit — April 6 / 2 CTC Locations & Online

The Council of Bishops, in cooperation with the denomination's Connectional Table, is sponsoring a series of conversations about adaptive challenges facing the church and how we might embrace and sustain change. The Leadership Summit calls together for prayer, discernment and holy conversation a cross-section of leaders and provides shared experience for engaging information and ideas about key initiatives to foster compelling alignment and generate forward momentum for the regeneration of the church.

A key component in the conversations is a three-hour webinar on April 6. The Central Texas Conference will provide two meeting sites from 10:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. on April 6:

Fort Worth First UMC's Wesley Hall — Dr. Tim Bruster, host

Foundation UMC, Temple's New Life Center — Rev. Rankin Koch, host

Anyone interested in attending, may register by calling the Temple District office at 254-773-2481 for the Temple location and Susan Briles at 817-877-5222 for the Fort Worth location. Lunch paid by the participant will be available if registered ahead of time. Those not attending either of the two location sites may follow on their own. The Summit's preparatory materials are available online at <http://www.umcleadershipsommit.org>. There are links to draft reports from study committees that will be part of the webinar conversation. Reading the material ahead of time will enhance effective participation, but is not required. A glossary of terms will be provided to help persons participate fully.

CTCYM Registration Deadline — Thursday, April 7

The fee for all 2011 CTCYM trips will increase after Thursday, April 7. The Senior High and Combination trip fees will increase from the "on-time" rate of $225 to the "late" rate of $250. The Junior High trip fees will increase from the "early bird" rate of $200 to the "on-time" rate of $210. To get the best possible rate for your CTCYM mission trip, register at www.ctcym.org by April 7!

TCU Campus Ministry Invitation — April 9

The Wesley Foundation at Texas Christian University extends an invitation to "Launch Yourself into College Life" from 1 to 7 p.m. Saturday, April 9, on the Fort Worth campus. This is planned as a day of fun with college-bound students and gives participants a taste of life in active campus ministry. Respond on Facebook.

5th Annual Interfaith Worship Service of Help, Hope & Healing — April 10 for victims of crime, their families, friends, and the community

Crime Victims Council, an outreach ministry of First UMC Fort Worth, invites victims of crime, their families, friends and the community to the 5th Annual Interfaith Worship Service of Help, Hope & Healing at 3 p.m. Sunday, April 10, at First Arlington's Great Hall (313 N. Center St., Arlington 76011 - park and enter on north side). The service is designed to be a time of healing for all victims of any crime and will include prayers, scripture, liturgy, and music from the Christian, Jewish, and Muslim faiths. Victim speakers will share their stories and provide hope for continued healing. There will be an opportunity for victim names to be read or spoken. Children are invited to attend with their families. Sign language and Spanish language interpreters will be present. Following the service, there will be refreshments and tables of resources for victims. Contact: Sandra Lydick, victim chaplain, at 817-675-6367, sandralydick@crimevictimsCouncil.org or check out www.crimevictimsCouncil.org.

Mother's Day Special Offering for Wesleyan Homes — May 8

This year Mother's Day, May 8, is especially crucial for all congregations to support the Benevolent Fund of our conference's senior adult ministry, Wesleyan Homes. Near May 1, your church will receive enough specially prepared bulletin inserts to take this offering on May 8. Why is this year's Mother's Day offering so important? In the Great Recession of 2011, Wesleyan Homes expects the financial needs of our 340 residents to require a 50% increase in our Benevolent Fund requirements. Remember: No one has ever been asked to leave Wesleyan Homes because they could not pay. Your support on May 8 (or for some of you, to make this missional gift in another way during the year, as you choose) is the major reason we can continue this "Jesus Value" of providing residential care for many of Central Texas' senior adults in need. IF YOU PLAN TO NOT USE THE MOTHER'S DAY BULLETIN INSERT, please contact Wesleyan Homes (tenos@wesleyanhomes.org) or call Tiffany at 512-868-1205 by April 25.

Preparing for the 2011 Annual Conference — June 5-8

Perkins Sponsors “God Loves Diversity” Conference — April 12

Perkins School of Theology will host a conference on “God Loves Diversity & Justice: Progressive Scholars Speak About Faith, Politics, & the World” April 12 from 1:30-5 p.m. in Perkins Chapel at Southern Methodist University, Dallas. The conference addresses ways that theologically progressive scholars speak about their faith, politics and the world in a culture they often view as dominated by theological conservatism and in a world torn apart by poverty, violence, war, greed, and various forms of exploitation. The conference will invite the audience to what is being described as “an engaged and respectful discussion” during the latter part of the program. This event is free and open to the public. More information about the event is available on Facebook at <http://www.facebook.com/event.php?eid=195845550438434>. For a map of the SMU campus, including options for public parking, visit <http://smu.edu/maps/>. SOSA Vacation Bible School Mission Program

Download the Full Packet Now

This year's VBS Mission Program of the Society of St. Andrews, "Order Up!," is based on Galatians 5:22-23, 25 — on the fruits of the spirit. Each day, in addition to being introduced to a Bible character who, by using his or her "Fruit of the Spirit," found favor with God, your students will also meet a "Today's SoSA Superhero" who will encourage them to discover ways they can use their hands to help the hungry. Student sheets containing a short scripture story, facts about hunger, the SoSA ministry, Go Green facts, potato trivia, and a pencil activity, are included for each day - for both younger and older children. New this year - we include song suggestions, craft ideas, and yummy snack choices for each day of your VBS program that go along with the "Fruits of the Spirit" theme. Order at <http://www.EndHunger.org/vbs.htm>.

Culture of the Call Church Award — April 1 Deadline for Applications

The Foundation for Evangelism is now accepting nominations for the 2011 Culture of the Call Church Award. The purpose of this award is to recognize one local congregation of the UMC each year that has a history of having young people 35 or younger respond to God's call to full-time Christian service as a result of their being active in the life of that church. The Foundation wants to recognize and highlight churches that are helping to raise up generations of leaders with a passion for evangelism. The first Culture of the Call Church Award was presented in 2010. For more information or to submit a nomination visit www.foundationforevangelism.org. The deadline for applications is April 1. The selected church will be notified in early May and recognized at their 2011 annual conference.

Water From the Rock, A Water Song Project Production — April 8 & 9

More than one in six people - 894 million - don't have access to the amount of safe freshwater necessary for their basic requirements. Because of this need, on Saturday, April 9, at 6:30 p.m. St. Philip's UMC in Round Rock will host the third annual concert in The Water Song Project, "Water from the Rock," with the goal of raising funds for the construction of a well in Ghana, West Africa. Water From the Rock will include three events on April 8 and 9: The concert will be held in the historic chapel at St. Philip's United Methodist Church, 16321 Great Oaks Dr., Round Rock. Suggested donation is $10/person and can be purchased at the door, in advance on the website <http://watersongproject.org>, or at the church office. Professional musicians will be donating their performances, so that all proceeds will go directly to UMCOR to fund the well. A silent art auction that includes water-themed art created by artists across Texas specifically for The Water Song Project will be available April 8 at 7:30 pm., April 9 from 2 to 6 p.m. and 7:30 to 8 p.m. An ecumenical service will address the topic of working together to do good work in "Privileged to Serve" on Friday, April 8, from 6:30-7:15 p.m. Come refresh your spirit and give the gift of life.

Resiliency: Transforming Turmoil into Hope — May 7

White Chapel UMC at Southlake will host the Resiliency: Transforming Turmoil into Hope conference from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. May 7 featuring John Woodall, M.D. Dr. Woodall is a board certified psychiatrist formerly of the faculty of Harvard Medical School and founder of the Unity Project. He has heard questions on turmoil and hope many times in his work with trauma survivors. Through his work in the U.S. after 911 and Katrina and internationally in Central America, Canada, the Balkans, Cyprus, Israel and the Palestinian Territories, Dr. Woodall has been a witness to the power that resilient strengths have in turning victims into role models. He will share his insights into the psychological and spiritual practices he uses to equip and empower people to make choices that transform personal and community turmoil into resilient strengths of hope and unity. Register online at www.whiteschapelumc.org.

The Leader Within: An Evening with Coach McCoy — May 12

White's Chapel UMC in Southlake offers an inspiring program on preparing children for life at 7 p.m. May 12. Brad McCoy, a highly decorated coach of 27 years and father of three high-performing athletes, believes that a child cannot be changed from the outside in; you must change them from the inside out. Whether you are a parent, a teacher, a coach, a manager, a role model, or a student, you will be inspired by his personal and powerful insights.

Mark Winter's One Man Show Jubilee — May 15-17

When some people hear the word "revival," they think of draggy worship services and long-winded sermons. Not so with One Man Show Jubilee! Mark Winter's One Man Show Jubilee is a mix of inspirational messages, humorous sketches and programs designed to help people discover strength, hope and joy in God. Alliance UMC will host a One Man Show Jubilee May 15-17. Sunday worship begins at 8:15, 9:30 and 11 a.m. and evening services at 7 p.m. Winter formed his One Man Show Ministries in 1999 as a "creative force for God." He is a General Evangelist of the UMC and author of If There Is No God, published by Cook Communications.

Youth Mission Opportunity in Palmer — June 23-26

First UMC Palmer announces PUMP 2011! PUMP (Palmer United Mission Project) is a four-day mission weekend sponsored by the church for youth groups from across Texas and surrounding areas. Dates for PUMP 2011 are June 23-26. Youth entering grades 4-12 and adults alike are given the opportunity to serve those in need living in the Palmer area. In addition to the mission projects, participants will experience small group study, meaningful daily worship, awesome music and inspired talks. There are many planned activities designed to help everyone let loose, experience God, spread His love and have fun. This is an excellent mission trip for first-timers and/or small youth groups. For more information, contact Debbi Mitchell by at 214-683-1501 or palmerpump@yahoo.com. Space is limited so let the church know if you are interested and a reservation brochure will be sent to you! Reservation deadline: May 15.

Depression Connection: Understanding, Help and Hope

When suffering from depression, bipolar or a related disorder, learn what helps and what hurts. Research confirms that people who participate in regular support groups often experience a better quality of life and a greater likelihood of recovery from the symptoms of depression, anxiety disorder and bipolar disorder. Depression Connection support group meets Tuesdays from 6:30-8 p.m. in Room 4 of the Heritage Campus of First UMC Grapevine (4344 Heritage Ave.). The group is structured to include approximately 10 individuals and a licensed, trained facilitator. In addition to an opportunity to communicate about one's individual concerns, an educational component is included in each meeting. Questions about Depression Connection? Contact Katherine Hunter at 817-481-2559 x130 or katherineh@fumcg.org.

Career Transition Support Group at First Hurst

NETworkers is a career transition support group at First UMC Hurst for those who are unemployed and actively looking for jobs. NETworkers meets in the church parlor every Monday for about 1 ½ hours beginning at 9 a.m. Knowing that unemployment is such a difficult situation, the church wants to do something to offer emotional support as well as practical tips for social networking, resume writing, etc. They often have guest speakers. Contact: Sandra Hill at 817-282-7384 ext. 17.

Youth Director/Minister/Pastor/Coordinator

Discovery, a quick-growing and vibrant church in Hutto - just north of Austin, seeks a Youth Director/Minister/Pastor/Coordinator (you'd get to choose the title). The community has exploded in the last decade, growing from a rural community of 1200, to a suburban community of Austin. The primary purpose of this position is to lead students in a relationship with Christ and each other. This church has never had a paid youth position, and this means that you will be building a ministry from the ground up. This is a part time position, but we anticipate, with the right person, and by God's grace, this could transition to a full time position. Summer hours will probably be more than school-year hours, given mission trips, retreats, and summer camps. Please send a cover letter and resume to paul.gravley@huttodiscovery.org. In your cover letter, please write a paragraph describing what you're passionate about, and how that passion would impact your work in this position. If email is not an option, please send the same requirements to Discovery UMC, c/o Paul Gravley, P.O. Box 426, Hutto 78634.

Director of Youth Ministries

First UMC of Stephenville seeks a part-time youth director.
