What Is Your Church Doing for World Malaria Day (April 25)?

The UMC will mark World Malaria Day April 25 with a call to local churches to be in prayer and action for ending this fully preventable disease that kills a child every 30 second in sub-Saharan Africa. All our churches are encouraged to participate in the Imagine No Malaria 2010 Annual Conference offering and many will want to participate in the sleep out event April 24, in which individuals sleep out overnight under imitation or makeshift bed nets.

With Imagine No Malaria — the next step after the incredible success of Nothing But Nets — the UMC joins the United Nations Foundation and our global malaria community partners, in raising $75 million to eliminate death and suffering from malaria in Africa by 2015. The UMC is encouraging our churches to participate in this special initiative and in the April 24-25 events as part of a unified action for World Malaria Day. Directions and ideas for local church and youth groups are available online at www.ImagineNoMalaria.com. Members of St. Stephen UMC in Arlington will participate in service projects April 24 and canvas their neighborhood on April 25 with information on how to eliminate mosquitoes right here in our own communities. What is your church or youth group planning to do? If you would like to share your activities with others, please send a description to Carolyn Stephens at Carolyn@ctcumc.org and register your activity with the UMC at <http://rethinkchurch.org/changetheworld>. For Imagine No Malaria information and downloadable resources, please visit http://www.umc.org/site/c.lwL4KnN1LTH/b.5554239/k.31EB/Imagine_No_Malaria_a_ministry_to_eliminate_malaria_in_Africa_by_2015.htm. How Do We Prevent/Respond to Bullying?

A message from Joy Roberson, associate director for student ministries: A recent episode of bullying hit home in our conference. A 13-year-old student committed suicide after being victimized by his peers. As we all deal with the ugly aspect of high school bullying, I wanted to encourage you to talk with your student groups about bullying, respecting others, loving ourselves, and how to handle conflict. Some resources we suggest are:

CTC Update on Haiti Relief

From Disaster Response Task Force Chair Laraine Waughtal: The situation in Haiti continues to be a difficult struggle. And the people of the UMC continue to respond to the need in Haiti. Because so much of the population is living outdoors due to the loss of homes and the continued fear of aftershocks, new problems are developing in the country. Many babies are now being born out on the streets at a great risk for the loss of life due to the unsanitary conditions. Birthing Kits, which cost about $8 each to assemble, and Layette Kits, which cost about $35 each, are desperately needed. The Birthing Kits provide safe and sanitary ways for women to delivery babies who do not immediate have access to medical care. The Layette Kits contain those items first needed for the newborn, such as receiving blanket, cloth diapers, newborn outfits and more. For church groups assembling these kits, please do not forget to include your $1 for the shipping of each kit. Where possible, please have your church gather the individual dollars and write one check made out to the CTC and "Relief Supplies" on the memo line to be turned in at the collection site. The Conference Disaster Response Task force is asking for churches to collect Layette Kits and Birthing Kits (the content list is online at <http://sagerbrown.org/>). Austin Avenue UMC in Waco has agreed to be our collection point to the south and all kits should be taken there by April 29. Bethel UMC in Weatherford will be the northern collection point. They request that you bring your kits to them Saturday, May 1, between 9 a.m. and noon. The conference has a team going to Sager Brown and will be taking these kits directly to the depot. Let's have another great response from the CTC like we did with our Health Kits and let the people of Haiti know how much we care. If you have questions, contact Jennifer Bellamy at 817-877-5222 or Laraine Waughtal at 940-564-6494. Please pack your kits in boxes and mark on the outside of the box the count for each type of kit.

Have You or Someone You Know Been a Victim of Crime? — April 18

Has someone in your church been a victim of crime? You may not know because some people never tell anyone. That is why it is important to let our congregations know that there is a service each year that has brought great comfort to such persons. A Community Interfaith Worship Service of Help, Hope and Healing for Crime Victims, their families & friends, and the community will be held at 3 p.m. Sunday, April 18, at The Garden Community Center of Goodwill Industries (4005 Campus Drive, Fort Worth). Details at www.crimevictimsCouncil.org

Pastor Brings New Life to Sedgwick, Ark., Church

Two years ago, Sedgwick UMC was close to death. Regular worship attendance had dwindled to six people, and the congregation had little hope for growth in this 100-resident farming community. District Superintendent Kurt Boggan informed the congregation that there was only one lay speaker available to serve the church and she had a history of substance abuse. The congregation reluctantly agreed to accept Marilyn Neal as their pastor. Today, attendance has tripled and church members are finding ways to serve the community. To read the full story, click on
