News Briefs — The Conference

Apportionments Recalculated

From Conference Treasurer Rev. Harvey Ozmer: As promised, the approval of "The Exodus Project" (conference alignment) will have an immediate financial impact on every local church. Reducing the number of district superintendents from 7 to 5 in June 2011 lowers the 2011 apportionment fund #2 by $145,894. We have recalculated and reduced that apportionment based upon the decimal. Every district office has been notified and given a list of their churches' new lower apportionment amounts. We have requested that the district offices communicate this information to their churches. You may also find the updated apportionment pages on the conference website on the District Stewards page.

New Voice of Welcome

On Dec. 1, the CTC welcomed Krystle Robert to the conference office staff. Krystle, who has been a member at Davis Memorial UMC for 24 years, now serves as the assistant benefits administrator and is the smiling face that greets visitors to the conference office. Please take a moment to extend a hearty welcome the next time you phone or visit the office.

Holiday Times and Glen Lake Camp

It's a Busy Time Everywhere...Except at Glen Lake Camp & Retreat Center

Oh, the full-time staff has plenty to do...repairing the facilities and planning for an incredibly busy 2011 retreat season and Summer Camp. Glen Lake is adding Family Camp this summer, so staff "plates are full." The "quiet" is caused by the absence of "guests" from Thanksgiving through the first of the year. You are all spending time with family and church family. And that is how it should be! However, without "guests" GLC has no retreat income—and the camp bills just keep coming! Take a minute during The Race to Christmas Day to remember the critical ministry being prepared for you and your family at Glen Lake Camp & Retreat Center. You may send a contribution (check) to: Glen Lake Camp & Retreat Center, P. O. Box 928, Glen Rose 76043. Or visit Glen Lake at: www.glenlake.org to make an on-line contribution.

CyberSafety for Families

There is a new resource kit to assist local churches in providing Safe Sanctuaries training for leaders, teachers, and congregations. It includes everything needed for training parents and other concerned adults about ways to keep children and teens safe online. The kit is on DVD (Mac and PC compatible) with a planning guide, teaching plans with schedule options, handouts and a slide presentation. Paul O'Briant, creator of this kit, is an active church member who has combined his love for God's people and his passion for new technologies into the work of CyberSafety for churches. Available at Cokesbury stores or at www.cokesbury.com or check out a copy from our Conference Resource Center by contacting Carol Roszell (817-877-5222 or carol@ctcumc.org). For more information about Safe Sanctuaries, contact Karen Granderson (karen@ctcumc.org).

Anyone wishing to schedule training for their church, or preferably a cluster of churches, may contact Carolyn Stephens at Carolyn@ctcumc.org. "The program is first and foremost about evangelism," according to Brad Brittain who is one of the presenters, "but we have found that church transformation is a byproduct of the evangelism."

This experience, a donated gift, is open free of charge to both married active clergy and their spouses. The only cost to participants is travel to and from the event. ## News Briefs — The Denomination

Upper Room Books Author Missy Buchanan on Good Morning America

(GBOD) — Upper Room Books author Missy Buchanan will be featured on ABC-TV’s Good Morning America on Monday, Dec. 13, in a segment about aging and faith with Lucimarian Roberts, mother of GMA co-anchor Robin Roberts. Buchanan, author of multiple books for older adults, developed a deep sensitivity to their needs and feelings after serving as a daily caregiver for her aging parents. She is now an advocate for older adults. Mrs. Roberts, 86, read Buchanan’s book, Living with Purpose in a Worn-out Body, and was so moved that she called Buchanan and asked, “How did you know what I was thinking?” The interview took place in Robin Roberts’ New York apartment. The three women spoke frankly about challenges the Roberts’ family is encountering—especially communication—as Mrs. Roberts is growing older. Matters of faith were an important part of this conversation. On the day of the interview, Lucimarian Roberts said to Buchanan, "Thank you for writing what I feel but can't always say." For more information (including links to Buchanan's blog and Facebook page), visit www.missybuchanan.com.

Religion & Race Commission Urges UMs to "Drop the I-Word"

The General Commission on Religion & Race is urging UMs to join a national campaign to eliminate the use of the word "illegal" as part of the conversation on immigration reform. GCORR has signed on to endorse the "Drop the I-Word" public relations campaign launched by ColorLines.com and the Applied Research Center, a racial justice think tank urging media outlets and other organizations across the country to stop using the term "illegals" and its derivatives. The UMC's endorsement is a tangible way to engage UMs in moving from racism to relationships. Immigration has proven to be a divisive issue across the country and within our churches. More details are available at www.gcorr.org as well as teaching tools, a Bible study and opportunity to join in the pledge.

A Hopeful Earth

Great resource for small groups, Sunday school and a 2011 Lenten study

The environment is God's creation and Christians should be at the front of the crowd when it comes to taking care of it. Yet we find ourselves in a creation crisis. A Hopeful Earth, a unique study, draws together the Christian faith of Bishop Sally Dyck and the scientific world of her niece, Sally Ehrman, to address this crisis. As these two dialogue, readers will find that these sometimes differing worldviews are both crucial to making lasting changes. They'll also discover how the church can reach out to the younger generation by joining them in the race to save the planet.

□ A Hopeful Earth will bridge the gap between Jesus and the environment and guide readers in understanding that living as good stewards of God's creation is a significant component of what it means to follow Jesus. Sample the first chapter at .
