News Briefs — The Conference

It's Official — Alignment Approved!

A total of 632 members at the Called Session last Saturday, Nov. 13, gave a resounding, close to 100 percent vote of support for the CTC's new alignment plan. The Exodus Project: A Transformational Roadmap for a Church in Transition was the single item of business on the agenda, and members meeting at First UMC Mansfield took just over two hours to complete their task. Present for the voting were 314 lay members and 318 clergy. Read more about the meeting at www.ctcumc.org and view The Exodus Project in its entirety at http://ct.brickriver.com/files/oFiles_Library_XZXL CZ/CTCNovember13The_ExodusProject_JEHY9TJF.pdf.

Called Session Offering Adds $6,945 to INM Campaign

A rogue Mosquito Man invaded the 2010 Annual Conference last June to challenge CTC congregations to join in the Imagine No Malaria worldwide fight to stamp out malaria by 2015. Altogether the conference committed to raising $140,000 — an amount very close to the goal of $1 per member or $164,400 — in the Imagine No Malaria campaign. About $35,000 came in cash donations at Annual Conference and another approximately $105,000 came in pledges. Most of those pledges were in support of the Cabinet's "A-Pound-A-Weigh" collective weight loss goal by the Called Session Nov. 13. Bob Holloway, dean of the Cabinet, confirmed that the Cabinet did, in fact, lose a collective 123 pounds. Generous individuals and congregations gave $6,945 in the offering plate at the Called Session. Two of the offering checks were clearly payment of pledges in the "A-Pound-A-Weigh" challenge. The Cabinet lost the weight, and approximately $50,000 in pledges is needed now to fulfill the goal. Read more at www.ctcumc.org. And see more about hosting a Malaria House Party under "News Briefs — The Denomination."

Time to Get/Renew Church Video License

Churches, Sunday school classes, and youth groups using video in their services and programs need to be mindful of renewing their Church Video License at this time of year. Pre-recorded home videocassettes or DVDs, those commonly available in retail or rental stores and some of those offered from the Conference Resource Center, are intended for personal home use only. Viewing DVDs outside the home requires a license granting specific authorization. This is the case for each organization that uses videos—even for nonprofit groups, even if admission is not being charged, and even though the video has been purchased. Churches and other ministry organizations can show videos and be in accordance with the U.S. Copyright Act by using one of the following methods:

1. Showing videos which have "Public Performance Rights,"
2. Receiving written permission prior to using the video, or

3. Obtaining coverage with the Church Video License

The Church Video License is one of the most cost effective and convenient ways for churches and other ministry organizations to protect themselves from the possibility of being fined for illegal use of videocassettes and videotapes. Renewal for the conference video license will be in January and participants will be notified that month. Our current license expires Feb 1. If any church wishes to be a part of this umbrella policy, please contact Susan Briles at susan@ctcumc.org, 817/877-5222 or 800-460-8622.

Jan. 10 Deadline to Apply for 2011 Human Relations Day Grant

The grants are to support ministries that respond to non-violent young offenders through education, advocacy or leadership training and development. Grant funds are raised through the UMC's Human Relations Day Special Sunday each year. This day of social action and raising awareness supports the Youth Offender Rehabilitation Program. Human Relations Day happens the Sunday immediately following the observance of Martin Luther King Jr.'s birthday: Jan. 16 next year. To qualify for a Human Relations Day grant, the applicant must be either a UM local church, district, annual conference or other affiliated group/organization, or an ecumenical group/organization working with and through at least one UM agency or organization, whose program affects at least one UM local church. Imagine No Malaria Releases First Funds

(UMNS) The UMC hopes to combat malaria in Africa by using both its own health infrastructure and partnerships with other organizations. To achieve that goal, the denomination will release funds by the end of the year from its "Imagine No Malaria" initiative to the Geneva-based Global Fund to Fight AIDS, Tuberculosis and Malaria. Last week, funds were authorized for release to the UM Committee on Relief. Funding will be used to train African health boards providing local delivery systems for malaria prevention, education and treatment. The denomination also is spearheading a national distribution of mosquito bed nets in Sierra Leone at the end of November. Read the full story at

World Malaria Day 2011: Host a Malaria House Party

The UMC's Imagine No Malaria campaign is asking UMs to support a lifesaving cause by hosting a malaria house party for World Malaria Day, April 25, 2011, or in the months leading up to the event. "Ending malaria-related deaths is a goal that requires the commitment of UMs around the globe, but the fight against malaria can start in your own living room," said Bishop Thomas Bickerton, campaign spokesperson. A house party is a cause-oriented fundraising event that is usually held in a private home—although it may also be held in a church or some other community setting. There are countless ways to host a party—a small get-together, a formal dinner, a potluck, or as part of a New Year's, Super Bowl or Valentine's party—but people who are invited should have an interest in the cause and in learning more about it. To learn more about hosting a party or to sign up today, visit www.imagenomalaria.org/houseparty.

United Methodist Student Day —Nov. 28

Music as ministry of healing: Nearly every one of us can recall a song that made us stop for a minute and listen with a smile. United Methodist Student Day scholarship recipient Maria Payne considers it her calling to create those moments for the people who need them the most. Growing up in a family of five in Aberdeen, Md., Maria was active in Grace UMC. Behind the walls of Grace, her interest in music began as she played guitar and piano for her church. "I might have never gotten involved in music without my church," she commented. That early interest in music followed Maria to college. She did not want to play solely for entertainment. Maria sought to use her music to serve others. Then she learned about Shenandoah University in Winchester, Va. A UM-affiliated school, Shenandoah offers a music therapy program. "Music therapy," Maria noted, "is using music to inspire a positive response from persons with a particular need. Most therapists specialize in helping the elderly, the sick, and the physically or developmentally handicapped. Music can lower stress, raise spirits or encourage action." When Maria was applying to college, her mother knew what to do, having sent two children to college. She told her daughter to apply for a scholarship through the UM General Board of Higher Education & Ministry. Sure enough, Maria received support from the UMC to help her pay for college, something for which she is grateful. "College is really expensive. It's wonderful that the church supports good kids who want to do well in life," said Maria.

When we UMs support UM Student Day, we open the door for persons like Maria and minister to the people she will touch. Call 888-346-3862 today to order envelopes and other resources so your congregation can participate in this church-wide offering. They will be sent at no cost to your church! You can also place an order for the 2011 Special Sunday materials! Find more at <http://www.umcgiving.org/specialsundays>.

FirstADVENTure Family Event / Las Posadas — Nov. 21

First UMC of Hurst (521 W Pipeline Rd., Hurst 76053) hosts annually First ADVENTure, a family event celebrating the start of Advent. This year's event will celebrate Las Posadas (Spanish for lodging or inns), which is an annual tradition for many Mexicans and some other Latin Americans symbolizing the trials Mary and Joseph endured before finding a place to stay where Jesus could be born. Based on Luke 2:1-9. The children are the pilgrims (peregrinos) who have to request lodging by going “house” to “house.” All the pilgrims carry small battery-operated candles in their hands, and four people carry small statues of Joseph leading a donkey, on which Mary is riding. At each house, the resident responds by refusing lodging, until the weary travelers reach the inn (which will be the FUMC Hurst Fellowship Hall), where Mary and Joseph are allowed to enter. Once in the “inn,” there will be a celebration with crafts and refreshments. The children will create their own colorful piñatas, beautiful poinsettias, Nacimiento (nativity scene), and even bunuelos to eat. For families who have not yet made an Advent wreath, supplies and directions will be available. All families are welcome at this fun event! For details, call 817-282-7384, or go to www.fumchurst.org.
