Evangelism Training for Your Church

From Brad Brittain: The Conference Evangelism Task Force is ready and willing to come to your church to motivate your people to share the good news of Jesus Christ. The training is not really a "program." We do not bring fancy handouts or come with a "cookie cutter" evangelism program. We realize that each church is different with different challenges and opportunities. A big part of our training involves taking a look at the ministries of each particular church and tying those to making invitations to families in your community. We believe that before we can make honest invitations for people to come to our churches, our churches must be involved in meaningful ministries. We ask the following question at each church: "Would you send your church newsletter to Jesus? Would Jesus approve of what your church is doing in building the kingdom of God? The training event lasts approximately 2 hours and is done in such a way that it is entertaining and fun for those involved. By the end of the session, the church will have a general idea of where it is in regards to being an invitational church, as well as ways it can creatively engage people in the life of the church. This program is first and foremost about evangelism, but we have found that church transformation is a byproduct of the evangelism. Joel Robbins (pastor at Ovilla UMC) and Brad Brittain (pastor at Mexia First) enjoy conducting the events and would love to come to your church! We are committing our Thursday evenings to provide this training for local churches and/or clusters of churches in your area. To schedule a time, please contact Carolyn Stephens at Carolyn@ctcumc.org.

United Methodist Student Day — Nov. 28

Music as ministry of healing: Nearly every one of us can recall a song that made us stop for a minute and listen with a smile. United Methodist Student Day scholarship recipient Maria Payne considers it her calling to create those moments for the people who need them the most. Growing up in a family of five in Aberdeen, Md., Maria was active in Grace UMC. Behind the walls of Grace, her interest in music began as she played guitar and piano for her church. "I might have never gotten involved in music without my church," she commented. That early interest in music followed Maria to college. She did not want to play solely for entertainment. Maria sought to use her music to serve others. Then she learned about Shenandoah University in Winchester, Va. A UM-affiliated school, Shenandoah offers a music therapy program. "Music therapy," Maria noted, "is using music to inspire a positive response from persons with a particular need. Most therapists specialize in helping the elderly, the sick, and the physically or developmentally handicapped. Music can lower stress, raise spirits or encourage action." When Maria was applying to college, her mother knew what to do, having sent two children to college. She told her daughter to apply for a scholarship through the UM General Board of Higher Education & Ministry. Sure enough, Maria received support from the UMC to help her pay for college, something for which she is grateful. "College is really expensive. It's wonderful that the church supports good kids who want to do well in life," said Maria.

When we UMs support UM Student Day, we open the door for persons like Maria and minister to the people she will touch. Call 888-346-3862 today to order envelopes and other resources so your congregation can participate in this churchwide offering. They will be sent at no cost to your church! You can also place an order for the 2011 Special Sunday materials! Find more at <http://www.umcgiving.org/specialsundays>.
