News Briefs — The Conference

Conference Alignment Information Meetings

Voting members of the Annual Conference will have an opportunity to vote on the new conference alignment plan at a called session on Saturday, Nov. 13, at Mansfield First UMC. In preparation for that time, alignment information meetings will be held throughout the conference to explain the alignment plan and allow for questions. Anyone may participate in the following meetings:

- Brownwood District: Oct. 17 – 4 p.m. at Comanche First UMC
- Fort Worth District: Oct. 20 – 7 p.m. at Fort Worth First UMC
- Mid-Cities District: Oct. 13 – 7 p.m. at Euless First UMC
- Temple District: Oct. 28 – 7 p.m. at Salado UMC
- Waco District: Oct. 18 – 10 a.m. at Central UMC, Waco
- Waxahachie District: to be announced
- Weatherford District: Oct. 10 – 2 p.m. at Coutts Memorial UMC, Weatherford

Some Events Are a Once in a Lifetime Opportunity!

The Central Texas Conference Centennial Celebration is one of those events. Obviously, this is the 100th anniversary of the conference and activities for Saturday, Oct. 23, revolve around (1) recognizing and celebrating the local churches who make us what we are, (2) festivities throughout the day, and (3) casting a vision for our future. What can you and your family expect at the Centennial Celebration at the Will Rogers Center in Fort Worth?

- 209 churches/ministry groups will have table displays showing what makes them special
- 10 music groups will perform on 3 stages / lots of styles to suit all tastes
- 2 religious dance teams (Tongan and St. James, Temple liturgical dancers)
- favorite hymns sing-a-long
- strolling entertainers
- skits and enactments for different time periods
- clowns, minstrels, mimes and face painting — just because they're fun
- circuit rider
- barbeque lunch / hot dogs for the smaller kids
- youth hang out area and activities
- a few history-related dignitaries
- casting the vision for the future by our bishop

For more details and to order your tickets, visit www.ctcumc.org and click on the Centennial logo. And remember, everyone needs to order a ticket (which includes lunch) — even those who are bringing display tables.

Clergy Appointments Changes

Bishop Mike Lowry and the Cabinet announced the following changes to clergy appointments:

L. Kofi Adzaku (ordained minister in the Presbyterian Church U.S.A.) — will become CPE supervisor with Harris Methodist Health System in Fort Worth under ¶ 346.2, effective Oct. 24.

For more details, visit the UNIFY web page at <http://ctcumc.org/pages/detail/1447>.

Evangelism Training Opportunity

Hundreds attending the Annual Conference in June signed a Holy Covenant document promising to “heed Jesus’ call to ‘make disciples of all nations’ by extending the hand of Christian witness to at least two people each week.” The Conference Evangelism Task Force, mainly Rev. Joel Robbins (chair) and Rev. Brad Brittain, have been providing training to churches that are interested in adopting what Bishop Robert Schnase refers to as “radical hospitality.” The two pastors are committing their Thursday evenings to provide this training for local churches and/or clusters of churches anywhere in the conference. About 80% of the training includes inspirational ideas for being invitational (Matthew 28) and another component tied to success stories in other churches and the resulting changes in the lives of individuals and the congregation. To schedule a time for your church or cluster of churches, please contact Carolyn Stephens at Carolyn@ctcumc.org.

Tarrant Area Community of Churches Hosts Hunger Without Borders Luncheon Sept. 16 Luncheon to Provide Information and Kick Off the 2010 5K Fort Worth CROP Walk

TACC), an inter-church organization dedicated to connecting congregations and the community to address unmet needs in Tarrant County, in partnership with Tarrant Area Food Bank, Texas Christian University, Wesley Foundations at TCU and UTA Volunteers, announces Hunger Without Borders, a kick-off luncheon for the 2010 Fort Worth CROP Walk Oct. 17. The luncheon will be held from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 16, at First Presbyterian Church (1000 Penn St., Fort Worth). This no-cost luncheon will feature the personal story of a Sudanese family now residing in Fort Worth and is an information session for those interested in participating in the 2010 5K Fort Worth CROP Walk. The event will raise money to provide assistance and food for children at risk for hunger in Tarrant County and around the world. For more information, go to www.tarrantareacc.org. To reserve a spot at the luncheon or to participate as an individual, team or sponsor in the upcoming 2010 5K Fort Worth CROP Walk, email melindav@tarrantareacc.org or call 817-737-5554.

Lay Health Promoter Training — Sept. 24-26/Salado

For the past 5 years, several CTC churches have taken the GoodNEWS training from Dr. Mark DeHaven (Genetics, Nutrition, Exercise, Wellness, and Spirituality) for the purpose of training Lay Health Promoters in local congregations. Dr. DeHaven and Dr. Jenny L. Lee will lead the conference Sept. 24-26 at Salado First UMC beginning Friday at 6 p.m. and ending Sunday at 3:30 p.m. A registration form is on the Health & Wellness page of www.ctcumc.org with information on motel reservations and a detailed itinerary. Registration deadline is Sept. 17. Motels involved with the Salado event had an Aug. 24 deadline, but rooms my still be available at regular rates. This workshop is asking for 2 people per church, and even churches that have taken it before can sign up again. There will be a maximum of 20 churches allowed – 2 individuals per church – with a registration cost of $75/person, $150/church. Those attending this training will form the CTC focus group for the next 3 years. Dr. DeHaven will follow progress of the local churches and meet with the LHP’s every 6 months for 3 years.

Preventing Clergy Sexual Misconduct (PCSM) — Sept. 30

Course to be offered in the Brownwood District: Karen Granderson and Mary Gean Cope will lead this course from 10 a.m. – 3 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 30, at Early First UMC (1073 Early Blvd., Early). The course is designed for clergy who wish or need to do the training in person instead of online. Clergy from other districts are welcome to attend as well as church assistants and children and youth workers. A light lunch will be provided for the cost of $5. Please RSVP to the Brownwood District Office (brownwood@ctcumc.org; 325/646-8223 or 800/646-8223) by Monday, Sept. 27.

Strengthening the Black Church for the 21st Century — Sept. 30

On Sept. 30, Church Growth & Development is hosting Dr. Fred Allen, director of the UM program on Strengthening the Black Church for the 21st Century. Allen will be sharing new resources and training to local churches. Bishop Lowry and members of the Cabinet will be sharing this time with the group. Clergy are urged to bring at least two laypersons with you. Campus Drive UMC will host the event at their Administrative & Ministry Center (1400 E. Seminary Drive, Fort Worth 76115) from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 30. Lunch will be served. RSVP to Vicki@ctcumc.org.

Glen Lake Adventure Race — Oct. 9

Join the first annual Glen Lake Adventure Race on Saturday, Oct. 9, at Glen Lake Camp & Retreat Center, Glen Rose. Teams of 2 will run/bike/paddle/climb their way around Glen Lake with a few fun surprises along the way! Team categories: Men, Women, Co-Ed, and Youth (5th-12th grade). Prizes awarded for the top three teams in each category. This is a course that anyone can do. Never done an adventure race before? But up for the challenge? Not a problem. This race will be a fun day of getting to enjoy the outdoors and a little friendly competition along the way. All proceeds from the race go to support the ministry of Glen Lake Camp. Please visit <http://www.glenlake.org/recreation> for further details and to register!

Strengthening Families in the Local Church — Oct. 16

The Conference Nurture Council will present a seminar on "Parenting Skills Curriculum" starting at 9 a.m. Oct. 16 at Burseson First UMC. Registration is $12 before Oct. 1, $15 from Oct. 1-15, and $20 at the door. The goal is to provide opportunities for teachers, pastors and other church leaders to review and understand that teaching parenting skills is possible in their local setting. Keynote speaker Dr. Katie Long will address the theological rationale for the church to teach parents how to raise their children. Following that presentation, participants may choose up to three workshops on curriculum for the local church. Each of the workshops will provide information and resources that local church leaders can use to provide excellent training for parents and leaders who want to raise healthy, happy, responsible children. This conference is intended to increase spiritual growth, transform existing churches and help develop a whole new generation of principled Christian leaders. Check the Conference website (www.ctcumc.org) for more details. The registration brochure and more information about these workshops and leaders can be found from the calendar or on the Nurture Council, Marriage and Family page.

Join a Crop Walk in Your Area

Join a Church World Service CROP Walk in any of 3 CTC communities. CROP Hunger Walks help children and families worldwide -- and right here in the U.S. -- to have food for today, while building for a better tomorrow. Each year some 2 million CROP Hunger Walkers, volunteers, and sponsors put their hearts and soles in motion, raising over $16 million per year to help end hunger and poverty around the world and in their own communities. Check out www.churchworldservice.org for more information. The following CROP Walks are scheduled in our area this fall:

- Oct. 10 — Waco
- Oct. 10 — Mid-Cities (in Bedford)
- Oct. 17 — Georgetown
- Oct. 17 — Fort Worth (see www.tarrantareacc.org for details)

The Sower's Bag Sermon Writing Retreat — Oct. 25-27

The Conference Order of Elders is sponsoring The Sower's Bag Sermon Writing Retreat Oct. 25-27 at Still Water Lodge in Glen Rose. This sermon writing retreat seeks to help inspire, facilitate and lead interested clergy in planning sermons for the Advent and Christmas season. Dr. David Mosser, senior pastor at Arlington First UMC, will lead exegetical and study sessions in a lecture/worship format with lectionary and thematic tracks. Time will be set aside for small group fellowship and discussion as well as time to write and plan sermons. Mosser has been the contributing editor for Abingdon's Preaching Annual since 2003, and is a regular contributor to Preaching Magazine, The International Lesson Series Annual, Adult Bible Studies and Lectionary homiletics. For a flyer and registration form, visit <http://www.ctcumc.org/pages/detail/1459>.

Self-Care for Clergy Program Coming Nov. 8-9

The Self-Care for Clergy Workshop is designed to provide a break from day-to-day responsibilities and allow for reflections, reviving and renewing the spirit and potential that effective ministry requires.

Worship Resources for Children's Sabbath

This year, the UMC will observe Children's Sabbath Oct. 8-10. Children's Sabbath is an ecumenically celebrated weekend committed to educating the congregation about the state of today's children and families in America. Children provide leadership through music, sharing of gifts, and reading of scripture. Downloadable resources for this event are available through the Children's Defense Fund <http://www.childrensdefense.org/child-research-data-publications/data/2010-childrens-sabbaths-manual.html>. Depression Seminar in Your Church — FREE

Mental Health Facts from the Depression Connection Team: The World Health Organization has reported that four of the 10 leading causes of disability in the U.S. and other developed countries are mental disorders. By 2020, major depressive illness will be the leading cause of disability in the world for women and children. Most people diagnosed with a serious mental illness can experience relief from their symptoms by actively participating in an individual treatment plan. With no cost to your church, the CTC Committee on Mental Health Concerns and Depression Connection Team will provide a seminar for your church. To inquire, contact Tony Campbell at 817-810-9599 or tony@depressionconnection.org.

The Conference Resource Center has an outstanding selection of 90 books and audio visuals on mental health. These resources have been donated by Depression Connection Team and Conference Committee on Mental Health Concerns. Some of the resources are for individual reading and others are for group study. You may search these books and audio visuals on the CTC website or buy them at Barnes & Noble. Good prices are available through Yahoo's used books.

The Imitation of Christ. Why is this little book so valued? The Imitation of Christ transcends its era and author, having become a testament that speaks to the perennial human condition on the issues of our human relationship to God. It offers insight that is unparalleled in works before and since. The wisdom of Thomas a Kempis is for every age, for every person who seeks to live a more integrated spiritual life of seeking and finding, doing and being still. Br. Benet Tvedten writes a new introduction for this special edition. He brings his trademark insight and humor to bear on the lessons of The Imitation of Christ for every generation. 314 pg.
