September Is Recovery Month — Substance Abuse/Mental Health Services

Recovery Month is sponsored by the Substance Abuse & Mental Health Services (SAMHSA) and the Center for Substance Abuse Treatment (CSAT) within the U.S. Dept. of Health & Human Services. It is a platform to celebrate the people in recovery and those who serve them. Each September thousands of treatment and recovery programs around the country celebrate their successes and share them with their neighbors, friends, and colleagues in an effort to educate the public about treatment, how it works for whom and why. Recovery month also serves to educate the public on substance abuse as a national health crisis that addiction is a treatable disease and that recovery is possible. It highlights the benefits of treatment not only the affected individual, but for their families, workplace, and society as a whole.

The UMC is responding to this substance abuse crisis through Special Programs on Substance Abuse and Related Violence, SPSARV. SPSARV is housed in New York City under the General Board of Global Ministries. SPSARV is mandated through the General Conference and offers an array of trainings that not only undergirds the local church response to substance abuse and its adverse effects on individuals, families, and communities, but also supports those in recovery. Visit www.umspсарv.org for more information. The CTC OMC Addiction & Recovery Task Force would like to know what churches are doing in any recovery ministry. Rev Buddy Moore and

Susan Moore are volunteers for the SPSARV. Anyone that would like to be a part of this ministry contacts them at buddymoore550@gmail.com.

Evangelism Training Opportunity

Hundreds attending the Annual Conference in June signed a Holy Covenant document promising to "heed Jesus' call to 'make disciples of all nations' by extending the hand of Christian witness to at least two people each week." The Conference Evangelism Task Force, mainly Rev. Joel Robbins (chair) and Rev. Brad Brittain, have been providing training to churches that are interested in adopting what Bishop Robert Schnase refers to as "radical hospitality" in his books on Five Practices of Fruitful Congregations and Five Practices of Fruitful Living. The two pastors are committing their Thursday evenings to provide this training for local churches and/or clusters of churches anywhere in the conference. The training includes new ideas for leadership and an inspirational component tied to success stories in other churches and the resulting changes in the lives of individuals and the congregation. To schedule a time for your church or cluster of churches, please contact Carolyn Stephens at Carolyn@ctcumc.org.

Volunteers from the church and school will manage the computer lab and offer classes to assist those using the computers. The Pepsi Refresh Project takes ideas from people, businesses and non-profit organizations that will have a positive impact in the world. The only way to receive a grant is by getting votes from people in the community. The top 10 ideas (by number of votes) each month receive funding so your help is needed to get the project into the top 10! To vote for the Community Computer Club, go to www.refresheverything.com/communitycomputerclub and vote daily through Sept. 30. Votes may also be submitted by texting 100291 to Pepsi (73774). Depression Seminar in Your Church — FREE

Mental Health Facts from the Depression Connection Team: Mental illnesses are serious illnesses. They cannot be overcome through "will power" and are not related to a person's "character" or intelligence. The National Institute of Mental Health reports that one in four adults — approximately 57 million Americans — experience a mental health disorder in a given year. The U.S. Surgeon General reports that 10% of children and adolescents in the U.S. suffer from serious emotional and mental disorders that cause significant functional impairment in their day-to-day lives at home, in school and with peers. Most people diagnosed with a serious mental illness can experience relief from their symptoms by actively participating in an individual treatment plan. With no cost to your church, the CTC Committee on Mental Health Concerns and Depression Connection Team will provide a seminar for your church. To inquire, contact Tony Campbell at 817-810-9599 or tony@depressionconnection.org.
